The graduating class of 1921 was entertained with a Buffet Luncheon by Misses Jones, Borders and Standifer, teachers of the High School, Jan. 24th, which was one of the most delightful affairs of the season. Timely remarks were given the class by these teachers while each pupil responded with deepest regret in leaving the school or place that has given them so much pleasure these many years.

Mrs. A. N. Norwood, 7th street, was hostess to about 16 guests Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 1, to a luncheon and Whist party. After the games, cake, whipped cream and jello was served.

Reading without purpose is sauntering, not exercise. More is gotten from one book on which the thought settles for a definite end in knowledge, than from libraries skimmed over by a wandering eye. A cottontail flower gives honey to the bee, a king's garden none to the butterfly.

Keep reading literature found on news stand at Temple Drug Store. "We handle the Dallas Express."

Club life still exists in Fort Worth and from the several meetings of the different clubs which have been held, proclaims many social functions for spring. Watch these columns for these socials. Fort Worth is on the boom.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. G. T. Echols, 11th Avenue, Jan. 23, a fine girl. At this writing mother and baby are doing fine.

If we encounter a man of rare intellect we should ask him what books he read. Everyone should read all the literature, all the time, found on the news stand at Temple Drug Store.

"Read and keep what you read." The Brotherhood of Mt. Gilead Baptist Church of which Mr. D. F. Grimes is president, was entertained with a splendid program by the Ushers of the church Sunday Feb. 6th. Many turned out and enjoyed the program.
